

SOCIAL DYNAMICS IN THE POST-COVID AGE

INEQUALITIES, INTEGRATION, MIGRATION IN REGIONAL, URBAN AND RURAL CONTEXT

CONFERENCE AT THE CENTRE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES
BUDAPEST, 17–18 OCTOBER, 2022

PLENARY

Conference hall

9:00–9:30

Chair: Luca Kristóf

Greetings

Zsolt Boda, Director General of the Centre for Social Sciences
Imre Kovách, Research Professor, Chairman of the Conference

SESSION 1

SOCIAL INEQUALITY AND INTEGRATION

Room K.o.11–12.

Convenors: Karolina Balogh, Ágnes Győri,
Ákos Huszár and Miklós Illéssy
(Institute for Sociology CSS)

Monday 17 October ► 13:00–15:00

Challenges of the pandemic

Chair: Fruzsina Albert

Marianna Mrva: What drives the compliance with anti-pandemic measures? The role of concerns regarding the pandemic, trust in the government and trust in science during three stages of the Covid-19 in Slovakia

Csilla Zsigmond: 'Vaccine-hesitant' and anti-vaccine people
Fault lines and challenges

Eszter Vit: The ability of low- and high-SES schools to inhibit learning losses during the COVID-19 pandemic

Fruzsina Albert – Beáta Dávid: Changes of core discussion networks (CDNs) during the COVID-19 pandemic

Monday 17 October ► 15:30–17:30

Integration and disintegration

Chair: Ágnes Győri

Boglárka Herke: Women's rights and children's happiness
Attitudes towards single-parent families in Europe

Alexandra Sipos: The state of emergency and that of LGBT+ rights in Hungary

Zoltán Grunhut – Ákos Bodor – Dávid Erat – Márk Hegedűs:
The relationship between trust and trust functions via the example of European societies

Betty Chiyangwa: Second generation Mozambican migrant youth's identity and sense of belonging
The case of Hluvukani village in Bushbuckridge, Mpumalanga – South Africa

Márta Kiss, Katalin Rácz: Social cooperatives as tools for labour market (re)integration of disadvantaged people?
Goals, implementation and challenges

Tuesday 18 October ► 9:00–10:30

Child and youth

Chair: Karolina Balogh

Éva Perpék:

Child poverty and social exclusion in Hungary and Europe

Joseph Aigbolosimon Famous: A survey on public perception of youth homelessness in Nigeria

Dorka Sik – Andrea Rácz: Challenges and good practices in the child care and child protection system during the pandemic: in the grip of invisibility and indifference

Gabriella Nemes-Zámbó – Karolina Balogh:

How successful is the social integration of children leaving child protection provision

Tuesday 18 October ► 11:00–12:30

Forms of social inequality

Chair: Ákos Huszár

Natalia Simonova: Class inequalities in Visegrad countries and Austria. Economic, cultural and social dimensions

Klára Nagy:

Freedom within frames. The perception of paradoxical freedom among workers in the food delivery sector in Budapest

Bálint Kronstein – Szabolcs Fabula – Judit Timár – Márton Berki:
Exploring the nexus of uneven development and everyday life from a geographical perspective
A systematic literature review

Nóra Menich:

Inequalities in access to social support for people with disabilities in times of the COVID-19 pandemic
Findings from a systematic review

Eddy Bruno Eisen:

Norms, beliefs and values in social integration policy process for migrants' sustainable integration and equitable development in post-COVID age

SOCIAL DYNAMICS IN THE POST-COVID AGE

INEQUALITIES, INTEGRATION, MIGRATION IN REGIONAL, URBAN AND RURAL CONTEXT

CONFERENCE AT THE CENTRE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES
BUDAPEST, 17–18 OCTOBER, 2022

SESSION 2

THE ROLE OF ELITES IN SOCIAL INTEGRATION

Room T.1.40.

Convenor: Luca Kristóf (Institute for Sociology CSS)

Tuesday 18 October ► 9:00–10:30

Katalin Füzér: Global social capitalist elites

István Benedek:

Populist polarization in Hungary during COVID-19 pandemic

Kristóf Nagy: New Elite for a New Regime?

Ágnes Eitler: Patterns of past, ties of trust in the present. Local elite and organizing locality in the Niraj Valley (Romania)

Luca Kristóf: A country too small for big science?

The transformation of the Hungarian scientific field

SESSION 3

THE IMPACTS OF COVID-19 ON MIGRATION ISSUES IN EUROPE

Room T.1.40.

Convenors: Eszter Kovács, Attila Papp Z.
(Institute for Minority Studies, CSS)

Monday 17 October ► 10:00–12:00

Chair: TBA

Igor Shichkin:

Labor migration in Russia. Impacts of the COVID-19 crisis

Ralitsa Savova:

Labor migration in the EU during the COVID-19 pandemic – opportunities and challenges

Petra Péterfi – Bence Kucsera – András Torda:

“The [...] is always greener on the other side?”

Trust, satisfaction and happiness in the Covid-19 period along and beyond borders in 5 CEE countries

Dóra Boelens: Broken Bridges

Changes in acculturation strategies of international students and highly educated immigrants living in Hungary during the pandemic

Monday 17 October ► 13:00–15:00

Chair: TBA

Mariann Dömös:

The Italian pandemic situation and its impacts on immigrant communities.

Programs of Italian NGOs in the shadow of Covid-19

Attila Papp Z. – Eszter Kovács – András Kovács:

COVID-19 and Hungarian migrants

Kata Szabó:

The return of the Calabrian Millennials during the COVID-19 pandemic

Gábor Mozga – Márton Péti:

The impact of the COVID pandemic on the international mobility of Hungarian minorities in Hungary's neighbouring countries.

Tuesday 18 October ► 11:00–12:30

Chair: TBA

Roman Smirnov:

Pandemic-related changes of individual migrant strategies of international PhD-students

Mihaela Mocanu – Anca-Diana Bibiri: The Mobility Intentions of Romanian Students during the Covid Era

Zsuzsanna Árendás:

Conceptualizing student mobilities in the context of COVID-19: A global study abroad program, as an opportunity, or a (re)production of youth vulnerabilities?

SOCIAL DYNAMICS IN THE POST-COVID AGE

INEQUALITIES, INTEGRATION, MIGRATION IN REGIONAL, URBAN AND RURAL CONTEXT

CONFERENCE AT THE CENTRE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES
BUDAPEST, 17–18 OCTOBER, 2022

SESSION 4

SOCIAL AND METHODOLOGICAL
CHALLENGES TO RESEARCH ON CIVIL SOCIETY AND SOCIAL MOVEMENTS

Room T.2.36.

Convenors:

Márton Gerő (Institute for Sociology, CSS),
Dániel Mikecz (Institute for Political Science, CSS)

Monday 17 October ► 13:00–15:00

Chair: Dániel Mikecz

Ann-Mari Sätre:

Adaption of civic organisations in Russia to increasing control

Luca Sára Bródy:

Civil society mobilisation and the crisis of local governments in Hungary. Forming unlikely alliances

Aleksandra Samonek:

Ukraine's civil society between the full-scale war and the path to EU accession

Gerő Márton:

Crisis and mobilization
The influence of enemy images on political participation during the pandemic

Monday 17 October ► 15:30–17:30

Chair: Márton Gerő

Dániel Mikecz – Márton Gerő:

Anti-vaccination, anti-science movements and attitudes during the coronavirus epidemic

Piotr Kocyba:

Closeness and distance in qualitative research on Corona activists

Mauro Conti:

Researching transnational agrarian movements from within

SESSION 5

HUMAN ECOLOGY
CROSSCUTTING THEMES:
HEALTHY AND ENVIRONMENTALLY SOUND-
FOODPRODUCTION AND CLIMATE CHANGE,
PROTECTION OF THE ENVIRONMENT,
ENERGY AND WATER RESOURCES

Room B.1.15.

Convenors: Karl Bruckmeier (NOVA-University
of Lisbon and South Bohemian University),
Boldizsár Megyesi (Institute for Sociology, CSS)

Monday 17 October ► 13:00–15:00

Iva Pires: Sixty years of the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP) and the challenges ahead to create a healthy food system for people and planet

Ruta Spiewak: Toward's new model of food system based on examples of Alternative Food Networks

Denés Kiss: The last days of a gardening culture?

Actors and processes in the agriculture of Aranyosszék

Monday 17 October ► 15:30–17:30

Federico Maria Jelo di Lentini:

Comparative socio-legal analysis of the food waste phenomenon during the Covid-19 pandemic and the environmental unsustainability of personal protective equipment consumption

Maria Joao Horta Parreira: Zero waste and human ecology: a critical thinking based on a social innovation perspective

Federico Cuomo:

How to ensure a long-term perspective for Nature-based Solutions? The case of proGInreg Living Lab in Turin

Ana Stojilovska: Unpacking the energy poverty-climate change nexus: an integrative literature review

Tuesday 18 October ► 9:00–10:30

Pekka Salmi: Turbulent times in small-scale fisheries – reinventing the benefits of local fish production?

Leo Granberg: Comparing global food crisis 2008 and Ukrainian food crisis 2022

Karl Bruckmeier – Boldizsár Megyesi:

The future of agriculture and food production
Interconnected themes: food production, climate change, protection of the environment, energy and water resources

SOCIAL DYNAMICS IN THE POST-COVID AGE

INEQUALITIES, INTEGRATION, MIGRATION IN REGIONAL, URBAN AND RURAL CONTEXT

CONFERENCE AT THE CENTRE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES
BUDAPEST, 17–18 OCTOBER, 2022

SESSION 6

PLACEMAKING IN THE (POST)-COVID ERA –
THE ROLE OF CULTURAL HERITAGE AND LOCAL RESOURCES IN TOURISM AND DEVELOPMENT IN A REGIONAL AND URBAN–RURAL CONTEXT

Room T.1.40.

Convenors:

Adrienne Csizmady (Institute for Sociology CSS),
Bernadett Csurgó (Institute for Sociology CSS),
Melanie Kay Smith (Metropolitan University)

Monday 17 October ► 15:30–17:30

Chair: Adrienne Csizmady

Matteo Lupoli – Tommaso Rimondi:

Sustainable tourism in the inner areas during the pandemic period. The case of the apennine near Bologna

Gusztáv Nemes-Kyra Tomay – Judit Sulyok – Éva Orbán:

Second is the new first?

Conversion of second homes into primary ones

Giovanni Tocci: Tourism and Small Villages

Slow paths and development perspectives

Gergely Horzsa:

Place attachment in three Hungarian microregions with different economic background after COVID-19

Preliminary results of a survey

Bernadett Csurgó:

The role of place attachment and empathy in local producers' perspectives and behaviours toward sustainability in Hungary

Room T.2.36.

Tuesday 18 October ► 9:00–10:30

Chair: Bernadett Csurgó

Gábor Vasárus: Examples of territorial injustice and segregation on the fringes of Hungarian rural centers

Melanie Kay Smith: Urban green spaces and resident wellbeing: A case study of Budapest's City Park

Olt Gergely – Adrienne Csizmady:

Top down or bottom up? Placemaking, consumption and sustainability in post-socialist Budapest

Songling Chang: Smart Cities and Resident Quality of Life

Tuesday 18 October ► 11:00–12:30

Chair: Melanie K. Smith

Agnieszka Jaszczak – Ewelina Pochodyła – Katarina Kristianova – Juraj Illes: Urban design interventions in the context of the use of public space in Cittaslow towns

Marius Daraškevičius: Opening the Panemunė Castle Museum in (post)-Covid era: involving communities in identity creation

Juraj Illes, Katarina Kristianova, Agnieszka Jaszczak, Ewelina Pochodyła: The heritage of former mill race corridors Potential for placemaking and urban regeneration strategies

Alexander Morell: Stories from a cultural landscape

Implementing traditional. Sámi knowledge in placemaking and landscape architecture in Nikkaluokta

SESSION 7

FROM DE-PEASANTISATION
TO PATHWAYS OF RURAL INNOVATION AND REGENERATION

Room K.o.13–14.

Convenors: Imre Kovách (Institute for Sociology
CSS), Silvia Sivini (Department of Political and Social Sciences, University of Calabria)

Monday 17 October ► 10:00–12:00

De-peasantisation and rural regeneration

Chair: Silvia Sivini

Imre Kovách: Introduction of panel 7

Leo Granberg: Rural transformation in changing Europe

Willem Korthals Altes:

Rural regeneration and green societal transformation

Jesus Oliva – Luis Camarero:

Social change, rural futures, the Green Ring Revisited

György Mikle: Changing and continuous patterns of integration in a rural context: past and present of manorial villages

Summary: Imre Kovách

SOCIAL DYNAMICS IN THE POST-COVID AGE

INEQUALITIES, INTEGRATION, MIGRATION IN REGIONAL, URBAN AND RURAL CONTEXT

CONFERENCE AT THE CENTRE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES
BUDAPEST, 17–18 OCTOBER, 2022

SESSION 7 (CONTINUED)

FROM DE-PEASANTISATION TO PATHWAYS OF RURAL INNOVATION AND REGENERATION

Monday 17 October ► 13:00–15:00 Continuities

Chair: Imre Kovách

Nicole Mathieu: From De-peasantisation to rural regeneration in Europe: reflecting this conceptualisation through the French words and from the mid half of the 20th century until the Covid and Ukrainian war moment.

Mieke Meurs:

Is Capitalism Finally Triumphant in Bulgarian Agriculture?

Francesca Uleri: Deagrarianization and reagrarianization in inner areas: young farmers and back-to-the-land mechanisms in the Mediterranean peripheralized countryside

János Ádám Fritz: The search for a way forward in pre-1945 German and Hungarian rural societies after the fall of the „agrarian state” idea

Vera Majerova: The Czech countryside in the present and in the coming decades.

Summary: Nicole Mathieu

Monday 17 October ► 15:30–17:30 The society

Chair: Imre Kovách

Pawel Starosta: Processes of disseminating innovation and the social structure of the Polish countryside after the transformation.

Lehel Peti: Migration and social transformation of two Pentecostal Roma communities from rural Moldavia (Romania)

Grzegorz Forys: Organizational and cultural aspects of de-peasantisation of farmer's protests in Poland.

Katalin Kovács – Monika Mária Váradi:

Adaptation abilities of fruit growing farms, sustainability issues and broader social impacts in a peripheral rural context
Case study, Tolna-hills, South-Transdanubia, Hungary

Levente Szilágyi:

The role of agricultural associations in the Swabian villages in Satu Mare in the agrarian transformation from the regime change to the present

Summary: Pawel Starosta

Tuesday 18 October ► 9:00–10:30 Innovation

Chair: Silvia Sivini

Camille Robert-Boeuf – Nicole Chambron:

Territorial food projects in France

A tool for rural innovation and regeneration ?

Maura Farrell and Aisling Murtagh:

Irish organics

Pathway to innovation and generational renewal

Enikő Veress:

(Re)invention of the rural landscape: ecological aspects of the urban sprawl in the metropolitan area of Cluj-Napoca/Kolozsvár, Transylvania

Letizia Bindi:

Back home

Peasant regeneration and new agro-food companies for rural innovation in the inlands of Molise and Puglia

Summary: Camille Robert-Boeuf

Tuesday 18 October ► 11:00–12:30 The place and the values

Chair: Imre Kovách

Mauro Conti – Silvia Sivini – Annamaria Vitale:

Italian trends in ruralization

Integrated and innovative approach to rural development enhancing local resources

Davide Donatiello – Valentina Moiso:

Value of imaginaries and distribution of value in the Moscato Bianco wine chain

Stefánia Toma:

Rural Revival?

International returnees' aspirations and well-being in Romania

Georgi Boykov:

Deurbanization during pandemic

Temporal phenomenon or permanent process?

Maria Fonte:

De-peasantization, re-peasantization and the re-generation of rural places in the Mediterranean Italy

Publication (Maura Farrell)

Summary: Silvia Sivini